

CAREER MEMORY EXERCISE

“When I was young, most of my childhood heroes wore capes, flew through the air, or picked up buildings with one arm. They were spectacular and got a lot of attention. But as I grew, my heroes changed, so that now I can honestly say anyone who does anything to help a child is a hero to me.” – Fred Rogers

1. In the quote above, Fred Rogers explains potential changes in career outlook. What was your first career memory?
2. Why did it call to you?
3. Where are the threads of that in your life right now?
